

Fans Can Meet Drivers at PIR... NASCAR Sprint Cup Series drivers #33 Clint Bowyer and #9 Kasey Kahne will appear at PIR's Budweiser ROLL-BAR for a question-and-answer session with NASCAR fans before Sunday's Checker O'Reilly Auto Parts 500 Presented by Pennzoil. Kahne, who has won two races this year for Richard Petty Motorsports, is one of 12 drivers in the 2009 Chase for the Sprint Cup. Budweiser ROLL-BAR, located just behind the Bobby Allison Grandstands outside Turns 1 and 2 (west of the track), features the best in live entertainment with drink specials each day and night and appearances by some of NASCAR's top personalities. The innovative hospitality environment at Budweiser ROLL-BAR includes a special VIP section for guests, featuring high-end furniture on a raised platform. A number of unique custom structures – including a bar to house a replica of the No. 9 Budweiser Dodge – adorn the beer garden area and highlight the Budweiser branding seen throughout the club. Single-day tickets to Budweiser ROLL-BAR are available for $89 on Saturday and for $139 on Sunday. Additional purchase of a grandstand ticket is required for track admission.
